"Going Deeper"

Something's going to rock me and I can't keep my head
I've never seen the New York city streets when my leg'ers
Still treads
I know I'm better off standin' in the shadows far from Humans with guns
But now, it's too late, there's no escape from what they Have done, come on

I'm goin' deeper underground
There's too much panic in this town
I'm goin' deeper underground
There's too much panic in this town
I'm goin' deeper underground
Got to go much deeper yeah
I'm goin' deeper underground
They're gonna wreck it down
