She walks in, every eyes on her
She passes by, they're at a loss for words
There aint one man in the room
Who wouldn't promise her the moon
For just one kiss
They wanna know who she is
Chorus
Shes the girl formerly known as mine
Cuz I didn't take the time
And I didn't walk the line
Im the guy watching my whole world
As it's turning away with the girl
Formerly known as mine
She acts like she don't have a care
New dress, new color in her hair
Shining with a different light
Her life is nothing like the way we were
And it sure looks good on her
(Chorus)
Oh it breaks my heart,
Watching my whole world
As it's turning away with the girl
Formerly known as mine
