Everyboody, you got to get a move on Everybody, no stressing leave your cares behind Everybody, don?t have to fight the feeling, no Everybody, let?s party til the morning light

Forget about your life Monday through Friday Saturday night is where you always want to be Forget about the one who made you lonely It?s beter to share your love, so we can all be free Do you hear me?

Everyboody, you got to get a move on Everybody, no stressing leave your cares behind Everybody, don?t have to fight the feeling, no Everybody, let?s party til the morning light

And d o you know just who you are, oh baby? You're a star so bright that everyone can see Withinin this unverse of many colors Well if it's cool with you, then it?s alright with me Gotta get it out, y?all
