Heavenly one
Well we look to you day and night
Searching for answers
To make our lives right
Well we know that
What we must truly search within
For the answers to all our questions are easy if we begin

I'll take you there to another place and show
You the meaning of
Love and life and laughter and
All the things that all of the colors of love

I'll take you there to another place and show
You the meaning of
Love and life and laughter and
Forever and ever and that is the meaning of love
Colors of love

Heavenly one
Well we look to you day and night
Searching for answers
To make our lives bright

Well we know we know we know that What we're looking for is within
And I know that there must be a start
A place to begin

I'll take you there to another place and show
You the meaning of
Love and life and laughter and
All the things that all of the colors of love

I'll take you there to another place and show
You the meaning of
Love and life and laughter and
Forever and ever and that is the meaning of love
Colors of love.
