Like color, outside the lines.
Crushing relation, aeroplane.
Falling head first straight into a wall.
I've grown tired of your ways.

So I say no!
I don't wanna be your dog anymore.
Set me free from your leash.
Let me go.
I'm a stray dog, a master of my own.

Come Commodore.
Come Commodore.
Come back to me.
I didn't mean, didn't mean, didn't mean what I said to you.
Come Commodore, come back to me.
I'll buy you some shoes...okey.

One puzzle we can't complete.
Saturation for self-destruction.
Falling head first straight into your arms.
Here we go again, now.

Wish I could say no!
I don't wanna be her dog anymore.
Set me free from her leash.
Let me go.
I'm a stray dog, a master of my own.
