feels like they ripped down my heart that day they broke us apart but it just keeps on bleeding ands it's like I'm heavily medicated now that we are separated tell me the reason so each night I wish on a star begging that all mighty Lord to come restore my breathing coz since you've been gone it's like I'm lifeless can't go on like this baby

I wish I could escape to never neverland
Some secret faraway place that I'll be better there
Living without you
I wish I could escape to never neverland
Some secret place beyond the moon
Prepared for me and you
Off to never neverland (4x)
I look at pictures of us And Remember how it was then my soul keeps on bleeding
And baby I'm still dedicated I believe we can make it Just keep believing
And we can basically touch
But still I love you so much Coz your key holds my freedom
And one day I'll be set free from these cuffs ooohh
I wish I could escape to never neverland
Some secret faraway place that I'll be better there
Living without you
I wish I could escape to never neverland
Some secret place beyond the moon
Prepared for me and you
Off to never neverland (4x)

I know you're reaching baby Reaching for my hand
And even though you're speechless baby
I understand

I wish I could escape to never neverland
Some secret faraway place that I'll be better there
Living without you
I wish I could escape to never neverland
Some secret place beyond the moon
Prepared for me and you
Off to never neverland (4x)
