There I go again
Throwing caution to the wind
'Cause, I can't pretend
It's not true and we are only friends

And it only complicates things, how I feel
I guess it just depends
Wish I could talk to you now
When will I see you again

I sit at home and think about you all night long
You've been gone for much too long
I want to be with you, I don't want anybody else
So if you want me too then you can have me for yourself

And I would walk a million miles
Just to see you smile
I'd tempt the hand of fate for a chance
To look into your eyes

I have all but lost my faith
That true love could be
When I hold your hand
You make me believe

I sit at home and think about you all night long
You've been gone for much too long
I want to be with you, I don't want anybody else

I want to be with you, I don't want anybody else
I want to be with you, I don't want anybody else
