Tell me what to think
When you look deep into my eyes
Do you begin to realize That we're in misery?

I don't understand It's such a mystery to me and we agree to disagree,
'Cause we were never meant to be and all I know is [chorus]

I hate you
I think it's safe to say you hate me too
How did we ever get this fucked up point of view
Oh anyway, anyway
Well it's alright
Let you come over we can scream and fight and in the end you wanna stay with me all night and that's alright with me.

Everybody says
That I should stay away from you and I know you're friends are too But they don't have a clue.
Tell me why you think We like to play the games we play and say the evil things we say and what we're doing here today together now 'cause I know

I hate you
I think it's safe to say you hate me too
How did we ever get this fucked up point of view
Oh anyway, anyway
Well it's alright
Let you come over we can scream and fight
and in the end you wanna stay with me all night
and that's alright with me.
Why you and I start to fight then you cry Slam my door hit the lights Happens every time.

I've got your fist in my face and you're all that I can taste
But I want for you to stay It's all that I can suffer 'cause it sucks I hate when we break up
But it's part of making up and you know That's the only time we agree It's so easy to see

Tell me what to think
When you look deep into my eyes
and every time it's a surprise
That we're in misery

I hate you
I think it's safe to say you hate me too
How did we ever get this fucked up point of view
Oh anyway, anyway
Well it's alright
and in the end you wanna stay with me all night and that's alright
That's alright

I hate you
I think it's safe to say you hate me too
How did we ever get this fucked up point of view
Oh anyway, anyway
Well it's alright
and in the end you wanna stay with me all night
and that's alright with me
That's alright
