So you say you're leavin'
Turn your back and walk away now
You never did believe in
Any of this anyway

You wrote a song to fail
As you watched us flail
We'll still be here
After the smoke clears

You know we know we don't talk about it
You know we know we built up walls around it
You know we know we won't forget about it
You know we know

Well, I guess the grass was greener
We'll watch you from the other side
There'll be no tears, no grievin'
Just a friendly wave goodbye

A captain's tale
Of a windless sail
Don't forget to skip
The part where you drop ship

You know we know we don't talk about it
You know we know we built up walls around it
You know we know we won't forget about it
You know we know

We won't forget you
However long this takes
We won't forgive you
No matter what you say

You wrote a song to fail
As you watched us flail
We'll still be here
After the smoke clears

You know we know we don't talk about it
You know we know we built up walls around it

You know we know we won't forget about it
You know we know we built up walls around it

You know we know we don't talk about it
You know we know we built up walls around it
You know we know we won't forget about it
You know we know
