I don't trust myself
I've been doing the same mistakes
Can you help me to find a family?
It is so lonely by myself
I lost my keys
I don't even know my own address
And there's nowhere I wanna be

Can you help me, can you help me?
I never asked for anything
Can you help me, oh can you help me?
Can someone help me breathe?

There's nobody else
I walk the streets under the rain
No poetry in my misery
I lost my way, I'm homeless
I lost my keys
I don't even know my own address
And there's nowhere I wanna be

Can you help me, can you help me?
I never asked for anything
Can you help me, oh can you help me?
Can someone help me breathe?

I went outside
Screamed your name real loud
But no one came
I'm so afraid
Is this too late?
Cause I need your strength
Where are you?
Where are you?
I need your help, you're never there

Where are you?
Where are you?
Why are you hiding?
You never care

Where are you, oh can you help me?
Can you help me?
I never asked for anything
Can you help me, oh can you help me?
Can someone help me breathe?

I feel so lonely
I feel so lonely
Oh I know you judge me
But I need your help, why don't you love me?
One more time, one more time
Oh if you don't mind
One more time, one more time
I said one more time
I said one more time
One more time!
