since you left me for another girl, my life switched and twirled, i was thinking to myself again, what if i was that gurl in your dreams that you fall in, i wish you loved me the way i love you, so we both got are heart in two,
and if i never found your key yet to your heart, please tear my world apart, i might be 13 years old, but when your not here with no to hold, im here and occure my cold, if i was that girl in your dreams, it might not sound crazy as ut seems, but if you try to take me far away, i wiil always be anywhere to stay, i will never leave you in the cold like you did to me, because if i say love then it means infinity, if i was that girl in your dreams i would of fell for you, because i love you and you should love me too, i wish i was that
