One door opens, another one's closin'
If I fall, you'll know which one I've chosen
Maybe tomorrow we'll be a little older
Stick around, you'll find out what I told her

Didn't need to say goodbye
Didn't even need to try
It's no one's fault, no one's to blame
But you know you gotta go
Just the same, just the same

The river runs or does it roll
I never knew, somehow it takes control
This is the way we all must go
We float along and sing a song to free our soul

Didn't need to say goodbye
Didn't even need to try
It's no one's fault, no one's to blame
But you know you gotta go
Just the same, just the same
