We live
Underneath these stars
For just a time
And you promised us
If we would seek
Then we would find
Well I have found you
And I have found your Holy Son
And I stand amazed
At all that you have done
And

There's no way
To repay you for my life
For every breath and every mercy
And all your light
And I could never thank you
For the times you've held me up
With your mighty hands
But you can be sure
That I will stand with you
And I will never move

Your power
Is the strongest thing
I've ever known
I need you
I will hold to you
And never let go
You are constant
Like the steady Northern star
And I will follow you
With all the strength of my heart
'Cause
