The sun is just rising in my life
And these are the years
Where I am deciding
And I am defining
The way I will go
In these moments of my youth
I want to live every day in the light of His truth

I want to look back on this time
And be proud of the person I've been
I want to know that the choices I've made
Won't leave me wishing I could make them again
That during these years my devotion was set
I want to look back on this time
With no regrets

The story that I want to write
Is one of strength
Filling each chapter with faith and with laughter
A beautiful life
I won't forget I'm a child of the Father
I want to live every day of my life with honor
