Do you know
That God designed you to glow?
And you hold
The Father's promise in your soul
You may be just one light in the sky
But you are enough
To light up a darkened night

[Chorus:]
Someone needs your star
Someone needs the light you have inside
So rise up high
You were meant to shine
And never hide
Spread your good works wide and far
Someone needs your star

Someone needs
One simple light to bring them hope
You may feel small
But you hold more goodness than you know
Desperately someone's reaching to find
A beacon of strength
That they can hold on to tonight

[Chorus]
