Something deep inside you
Wonders if you'll ever be enough
You fall, you fail
As you try to measure up
It hurts more than you show
But you have to know
You're never alone

[Chorus]
He is there
Always in your heart
Even when you wonder
If He knows who you are
He believes
You will make it through
And He knows all the things
You're going to do
No matter what you're going through
He will remain
True to you

He knew what you would go through
And He knew what you would need
So He prayed, and He cried
And He fell upon His knees
And it hurt more than you know
He's ready to show
You're never alone

[Chorus]
