"When It Storms"

You hardly know
How strong you are
Until the storm rages in your heart
When you feel the wind pushing you
And you feel like you want to give in Turn your sails to catch the wind

[Chorus]
When the storm wants to break you
When the darkness tries to shake you
Remember the sun still shines
And there is blue, blue sky
Right above the storm
Hold on 'til the clouds pass through
Don't let this moment break you

When the sky
Is overcast
Remember that it won't always last
When the gray starts to pull you down
And when the rain won't seem to end
Turn your sails to catch the wind

[Chorus]
When the storm wants to break you
When the darkness tries to shake you
Remember the sun still shines
And there is blue, blue sky
Hold on 'til the clouds pass through
Don't let this moment break you

Like a bird riding the stormy winds
Flying higher than it ever could

[Chorus]
When the storm wants to break you
When the darkness tries to shake you
Remember the sun still shines
And there is blue, blue sky

Hold on 'til the clouds pass through
Don't let this moment break you
