I'm tied to you just like I'm tied to the mast
You know I'm too proud to even ask
The places I'm going I just can't see
But seeing's believing
I'm chained to the feeling.

And I just keep on falling
I just keep on falling
Keeping me crawling, girl
I'm just falling now
Back to beginnings
Forever a feeling
Keep me believing
And follow the feeling now.

A poet with you when you sing me that verse
A man-made seed in your heavenly earth
And where we're going we just can't see
But seeing's believing
I'm chained to the feeling.

And I just keep on falling
I just keep on falling
Keeping me crawling, girl
I'm just falling now
Back to beginnings
Forever a feeling
Keep me believing
And follow the feeling now.

Wow just a feeling
Just a feeling
What do you feel?
