Sitting in the back room
Stirring up the cauldron
Find a feeling, let it go
Let your inner feelings show
Tearing down the back streets
Screaming with the sirens
Seldom seen is silence
Find a feeling, let it go
I'll bring the bricks
You build the home

And woo I could be a better man and grow
If you really love me let it show
Cause love is a key

Said woo I could be a better man and grow
If you really love me let it show
Cause love is a key

And my baby she got me low
She got me digging holes

Sitting in the back room
Stirring up your cauldron
Find a feeling, let it go
Let your inner feelings show
Tearing down the back streets
Screaming with the sirens
Seldom seen is silence
Find a feeling, let it go
I'll bring the bricks
You build the home

And woo I could be a better man and grow
If you really love me let it show
Cause love is a key

I said woo I could be a better man and grow
If you really love me let it show
Cause love is a key

And my baby she got me low
I like her on the knees.

Find a feeling, let it go
Let your inner feelings show

I could be a better man and grow
If you really love me let it show
Cause love is a key

I said woo I could be a better man and grow
If you really love me let it show
Cause love is a key

And my baby she got me low
I like her on the knees.
