When my baby's lonely
When she's lost her smile
I call her up just to tell her that it's only gonna be for a while
She's my one and only
Only thing worthwhile
She lets me know I'm her fella and I'm never gonna leave her side
Ooh ooh ooh she's the only one (x3)
In all I do she's the only thing on my mind
When my baby's lonely
When she's lost her smile
I call her up just to tell her that I'm coming down to dry her eyes
She's my one and only
The only thing worth while I know we'll always be together cause I'd never find a better way of spending my time
(repeat chorus)
I lose myself whenever she's away
Don't sleep at night and sit about all day
No one I know will ever take her place
(repeat chorus)
