Your lies do hurt - she's crying!
Letting her bleed away!

All rightâ€¦

Get off that fuckin' way
You gotta send her a light to be seen
In the dawn of your pathetic way
Of acting lonely in distance
The language you told her once was that one
From the heart - Now it's gone
With your headâ€¦

Your lies do hurt - she's crying!

Feeling her worries, you don't care
Guiding her love with your lies
Feeling her leaving, sudden cares
Losing your love, your disguise

Letting her bleed awayâ€¦

Get off that fuckin' way
You gotta send her a light to be seen
In the dawn of your pathetic way
Of acting lonely in distance
The language you told her once was that one
From the heart - Now it's gone
With your headâ€¦

Feeling her worries, you don't care
Guiding her love with your lies
Feeling her leaving, sudden cares
Losing your love, your disguise

Hey!

Why do you waste your time?

Why don't you love yourself?
Why do you save your fuckin' pain?!

This life is your way
And it's offered by a power
Don't you dare to give it back before to try
(To) keep track!

You're a liar -
Why don't you face her
The truth of your heart?
You're a coward - You're such a coward!
You stupid coward - You stupid coward!
You fuckin' coward:

Your lies do hurt - she's crying!

Feeling her worries, you don't care
Guiding her love with your lies
Feeling her leaving, sudden cares
Losing your love, your disguise
