What's going on in our heads?
What's going on we both said.
When you told me we're through,
What about me and you,
For the rest of our lives?

You looked me right in the eye,
Said you'd wait past the day we both died,
To lay eyes on a man, someone other than,
The boy who we both grew to love.

Together we grew in our culture,
Didn't I tell those boys are like vultures?
But you couldn't see and the love you had for me
Went flying out the door
Yeah you couldn't see and the love you had for me
Went flying out the door

Well, I hope that you know I am proud,
And I'd like just to say here out loud,
That I thank you, you see,
For you waited for me,
Til the first guy came around,

Yeah, you waited for me, and I couldn't believe,
Til the first man put me down.
