Mother died when I was born, all her insides ripped and torn

Father hates the sight of me - I'm an oddity!

I'm the ugly hidden son kept away from everyone

Captive in a private cell - acrimony swells!

Locked in shackles I've remained longing to be unrestrained

Time and hate will strengthen me - soon I will be free!

Chained in the attic! Why am I chained in the attic'

Eating only mice and rats muscles growing strong and fat

Living in my excrement - I am not content!

Terror of the human race gruesome features on my face

Swollen tumors on my skin - rabid bloody grin!

Trapped up in this rotten hole losing all my self control

Burning anger in my brain - driving me insane!

Chained in the attic! Why am I chained in the attic'

[Lead]

Set me free!

I'll escape and start to kill slaughter only for the thrill

Father chained me up from birth - I will kill him first!

All my neighbors soon will die cut the throat and suck

Oem dry

Feast upon their tender brains - piss on the remains!

Then I'll roam the streets at night satisfy my appetite

Tear the vicem's chest apart - just to eat the heart!

Chained in the attic! Why am I chained in the attic'

I will break free!
