Emily needs someone who'd take good care
Probably the kinda Man, Gentle and Fair
She deserves the best love in the entire world
The one in the Fairy tales with a beautiful smile, a beautiful smile
Emily had a life that was so perfect
She was a happy wife with a lovely child
Then she lost everything, on a dark evening
Life is not a fairy tale with a beautiful smile

They're so far now she lives in trouble
Every day she wakes up but stumbles
But her life is not only shambles, it's a fight, it's a battle
They're so far now she lives in trouble
Every day she wakes up and struggle
But her life is not only shambles, it's a fight, it's a battle

Emily's broken heart won't stop beating
She will never fall apart, she'll keep on dreaming
She deserves the best life in the entire world
The one in the Fairy Tales with a Beautiful End
Emily has faced this broken Home
Sleepless night, waking up feeling all alone
She's been through a storm, working to her bones
To put herself together and face the world
She's never gonna break or fall on her knees
This life ain't gonna bring her down on the floor
She's gonna stand up and praise the Lord
That nothing ain't never written in the stone

They're so far now she lives in trouble
Every day she wakes up but stumbles
But her life is not only shambles, it's a fight, it's a battle
They're so far now she lives in trouble
Every day she wakes up and struggle
But her life is not only shambles, it's a fight, it's a battle.
