And if there's hope in your eyes
It's fine with me
I sit alone in the fire and the greed
A little smoke in the night factories
I said the noise and the cries have to sleep

Who said it would be fair?
Held you down, you down
Way up in the high chair
Listen now

And it there's hope in your eyes
It's fine with me
I sit alone in the fire and the greed
A little smoke in the night factories
I said the noise and the cries have to sleep

Woke up in a nightmare
And the sounds, the sounds
Filled with all the despair
Listen now

And if you know in your mind
Your destiny
It takes a whole lot of tact
Come and seize
Nothing wrong from the right, apparently
And if your open your eyes, you finally see
And if your open your eyes, you finally see
