What about her, what about him
What about the hearts we're gonna break
Oh, I love you but what about them?

What about him I made vows I'm not forsakin' them
What about her you made vows that were the same
What about the hearts we're gonna break when we tell them
that we're in love and we regret we brought them shame.

Yes what about her, what about him
What about the hearts we're gonna break
Oh, I love you but what about them?

I can't forget the night we danced you held me tightly
We fell in love and how you set my heart aglow
What about the flames within in our hearts that keep on burning
I love you and you love me that's all I know.

But what about her, what about him
What about the hearts we're gonna break
Oh, I love you but what about them?

Yes, I love you but what about them?
