Keep it together, don't even start with me
'Cause i am much smarter than you and you know better

All those nights between us could make for a swell
parade
You're a little bit jaded, but that's okay

They say it rained the day your mother gave you away
They say it rained the day your mother gave you away

Everybody!

Keep it together, don't even start with me
better

All those nights between us could make for a swell
You're a little bit jaded, but that's okay

They say it rained the day your mother gave you away
They say it rained the day your mother gave you away
