Out of school got a planned up weekend
party goin at the house of my best friend
See girls in jeans tied up at the rear-end
People laughing till the fucked up sunset

Woke up the next morning by a girl I don't know
Girlfriend's callin sayin I'm leaving you
And thinkin of what my dad may say:

It's another down-Day (oh it's another one)
It's another down-Day (oh no more havin fun)
It's another down-Day

Morning a pluck I wish it was night
Hair like shit and eyes don't light
Girl-friend's not left damn sure might
I think of last time won't seem right

woke up next morning by a girl I don't know
Girl-friend's calling "I'm leaving you!"
And thinking of what my dad may say:

It's another down-Day (oh it's another one)
It's another down-Day (oh no more havin fun)
It's another down-Day
