everyday i see you in the morning, i can tell you that it don't get boring, i love to see you when you smile at me, cause then i know that you're not to busy.

(chorus)
when you go each day to do your thing, even if you're not dressed so bling bling bling,
you showed me that life is good,
and i did everything i should.

thanks for being there when i needed you the most, when it startles me when i think i see a ghost, you clamed me down and told me God is here, so then i realized that you're always near.

when you go each day to do your thing,
even if you're not dressed so bling bling bling,
you showed me that life is good,
and i did everything i should.

i hope you still know that i'm in your heart, when you're not here and someone place else, you may be busy without me but i don't want us to fall apart.

when you go each day to do your thing,
even if you're not dressed so bling bling bling,
you showed me that life is good,
and i did everything i should...
