As minutes went by, I thought of you that night, and wondered the truth.
Words of heartache and guilty mistakes, were from you.
I can't let this go that's why you have to know, what I think.
I don't know what to do, I thought that I could trust you,
but I was wrong.

Chorus

You make it hard to really think, if it's you or if it's me.
Because when we're alone you're not the same.
And as I lie here in bed again, the clock strikes 2am.
And I want to know if you're the same.

The truth could be told, instead a lie that needs a fold,
do you understand?
Words of demand, I took you by the hand, and thought you were true.
I can't let this go that's why you have to know, what I think.
I don't know what to do, I thought that I could trust you,
but I was wrong.

You make it hard to really think, if it's you or if it's me.
Because when we're alone you're not the same.
And as I lie here in bed again, the clock strikes 2am
And I want to know if you're the same.
