We've both made the same mistakes
And believe me I know it
I've come to depend on you
In my eyes, can you see
That someone's still hurting me?

What can I say
That will make up
For letting you down?
I just want you to know so

Come back
If you love me
How will I survive without you?
Baby come back
If you need me
Baby I was strong
And I tried to pretend but
Always in my heart
I know that I want you
Come back

Tomorrow's another day
Still I can't believe that I told you
And that was my big mistake
Every hour, every day
What can I do to make it through?

Oh, the days seem so long
I miss you so bad
It's breaking my heart, so

Come back
If you love me
How will I survive without you?
Baby come back
If you need me
Baby I was strong
And I tried to pretend but
Always in my heart
I know that I want you

Come back

Before you break my heart
