How did you come here?
How to know where she was?
I don't understand why did you come to find
Nor is it as you found me
Have attempted to separate from you as much as possible
Cause you're break my heart
And from that, it hurts me to hear your name
But maybe life does not have to be so
And so we have been back together, tell me something
Do you I've been looking all over the world?

Around the world gave
Just to come get me
I could never have expected this from you
But anyway...
Can't turn back time
The damage is done
You must learn to live with that
Learning to live with that

Sometimes just by hearing the name that you
(Which I have only you...)
I hear it causes pain and grief
But the cause is that you remember only
Why would he expected what he saw happen?
The time always manages wounds
That was what I had said to me
But I have to learn to face the target?

Around the world gave
Just to come get me
I could never have expected this from you
But anyway...
Can't turn back time
The damage is done
You must learn to live with that
Learning to live with that

They say they will not let you say my name
You just tell me that I wanted to

It's so sweet you wanted to tell me apologize to me
But even that I want is to say the least...
I must say goodbye

Around the world gave
Just to come get me
I could never have expected this from you
But anyway...
Can't turn back time
The damage is done
You must learn to live with that
Learning to live with that

And I will never forget what you did wrong
But don't all the good you have done
How to forget someone like you... ?
