Nothing to say
Nothing to think
I have no excuses to hide
That is so weird
There is no reason to run
What's more, I'm out and so happy
I think I saw your face
That's my reason to be well

Memories of your baby...
Just going to knock my door
You told me your name and singing
That beautiful melody in your soul

Listen to my song
When I'm saying
My world is yours
Listen to my song
When I am about to say
How I feel inside
And I give you my song
When I'm singing a melody for you
And my world turns to you

These listening to your radio station
Is your favorite and see how I remember
I'll never forget you
In the form it took the wind
On the way we used to talk
But look at him with a proper reason
Now my world you're in control

Memories of your baby...
Just going to knock my door
You told me your name and singing
That beautiful melody in your soul

Listen to my song
When I'm saying
My world is yours
Listen to my song

When I am about to say
How I feel inside
And I give you my song
When I'm singing a melody for you
And my world turns to you

I can only remember
From you, my mind is with you
My body, heart and soul
You are where you go
And so now I sing
I sing this tune symphonic

Listen to my song
When I'm saying
My world is yours
Listen to my song
When I am about to say
How I feel inside
And I give you my song
When I'm singing a melody for you
