You touch the scars of my soul and you're wondering
"Will he be able to love?"
I told you once and I tell you the same again:
No questions! No! Not at all! I see - But you go on

I cry - And I reject
I see - It makes me crazy
I cry - Can't you respect?

You're nothing else but a number - that's what you are!
You got nothing to claim
You ask me things 'bout my life and my destiny
You wanna know what I think?

Now the time has come
To end what you've begun
You'll pay the price for the things that you've done

You say I'm cold and my thoughts are not good for you
You want to stay? So decide!
I'm not a liar and that's what your problem is
So try to accept what I think

Now the time has come
To end what you've begun
You'll pay the price for the things that you've done

And for my life you prognosticate unhappiness
Yes Baby you're right
But tell me why should I risk to be hurt again?
So try to accept what I think!

Now the time has come
To end what you've begun
You'll pay the price for the things that you've done
