You got me smoking like a chimney top You got me checking my cellphone You got me going crazy with everything You got me confused when you use me

You got me acting like a child You got me over excited inside You got me acting clumsy, so ridiculous You got me acting like a fool

You got me proud to be your pretty babe You got me writing you love songs You got me waiting, running, crying, watching all kind of crap on TV And I still want you around me Around me, around me, around me

You got me feeling I'm not good enough You got me hiding from my family You got me down on my knees, so ridiculous You got me losing my mind

You got me proud to be your pretty babe You got me writing you love songs You got me waiting, running, crying, watching all kind of crap on TV And I still want

You got me waiting, running, crying, watching all kind of crap on TV

And I still want

You got me waiting, running, crying, watching all kind of crap on TV

And I still want

You got me waiting, running, crying, watching all kind of crap on TV

And I still want

You got me waiting, running, crying, watching all kind of crap on TV

And I still want

You got me waiting, running, crying, watching all kind of crap on TV

And I still want you around me Around me, around me, around me I say you got me.
