I'm in a wonderland whenever she starts to speak.

This girl, I'm in a wonderland whenever she starts to speak.

This girl, I don't think she ever sees a thing in me.

Racing through my fantasy,
Racing through my fantasy,
All I see is her and me.
She's racing through my fantasy.
Racing in my mind.
After her all the time.
She's just racing through my fantasy.
I see you and never a dream.

This girl,
You stay on solid ground, you'll never know.
Without wings you'll never float.
Without wind you're just a ghost.
Without dreams you'll never coast,
You'll never coast.
