What you up to now?
Who's your baby now?
Go ahead and tell me
I'll try to be happy somehow
And is he anything like me?
Does he look at you like me?
You said we'd get married in ten years
Did you forget about me?

And all the things that you said to me
The promises that you made to me
Save all that bullshit for someone else
'Cause you don't fool me

Coward, you are weak
You wrecked everything
Couldn't find the strength
To be straight with me
Don't you lie to me
And say that you miss me
'Cause if you loved me
You'd be with me

Said you wanted to be free
Free of fidelity
Said if you were gonna end up with anyone
It was gonna be with me
And does he want kids like me?
Support your career like me?
Does he walk and talk better than me baby?
Does he fuck anything like me?

And all the things that you said to me
The promises that you made to me
Save all that bullshit for someone else
'Cause you don't fool me

Coward, you are weak
You wrecked everything
Couldn't find the strength
To be straight with me

Don't you lie to me
And say that you miss me
'Cause if you loved me
You'd be with me

Too immature to say what you really mean
Didn't have the balls to go and get rid of me
All of the time that you kept me by your side
I was in love but it was a lie
I'm so angry for the time I wasted
Lingering while you looked for replacements
Can't wait for the day when you come to see
That there's no replacing me

Coward, you are weak
You wrecked everything
Couldn't find the strength
To be straight with me
Don't you lie to me
And say that you miss me
'Cause if you loved me
You'd be with me, you'd be with me
But you're not, but you're not with me....
