clouds came together for now
when they saw me falling
my brothers had left me
when i reached out
when i shouted
"help me, friends"

where should i go?
i've already been there
i spent my nights hiding there
my friends
you should not lie
my friends
it the story of my life

clouds came together for now
when they saw me falling
my brothers had left me
when i reached out
when i shouted
"help me, friends"

where should i go?
i've already been there
my friends
you should not lie
my friends
it the story of my life

where should i go?
i've already been there
my friends
you should not lie

my friends
