I was talkin' 'bout you,
Out on the street.
It won't be long,
Before we finally meet.
I played my cards,
And now my hand was all right.
And now I'm searchin',
But I don't see the light.
We had some action,
But it split, at the seams.
The situation had me,
Weak in the knees.
Now you look for me,
To hold you near.
I still need you,
So dry your tears.
I only wanted to be,
Loved by you.
Loved by you, and you.
Loved by you.
Loved by you.
You gave me f
All around in my brain.
Now just don't
I've got to feel it again.
My mind is achin',
And my body's afire.
There was a time,
You acted so refined.
There was
You could blow my mind.
Now I'm lookin',
At the way you changed,
Here we
The same old game.
I only wanted to be,
Loved by you.
Loved by you.
You know what Daddy likes...
