You have way too many reasons to burn my pull out bed
I've made other new arrangements to paint my bedroom red
You think that maybe since you're leavin you can make a mess
Well I'm mad, you better be believin, I'll stop you in your tracks

When you're only half awake I try to predict
What you do to me if I carve my name in your chest

So you're off in California
Drinkin in the scene
Sold your face, see you on the tv
You're sleepin in the van

The waters warm, the waters much warmer
When will you learn how to swim
Turn it off
Turn off your cell phone
We'll hear from your closet again

When I'm only half awake I try to forget
What you could and should've been if you hadn't left

Hey yah it's too late for the radio
I said hey yah it's too late for your cameo
I said hey yah it's too late for the radio
I said hey yah it's too late for your cameo

Do wop Do wah
Do wop Do wah
Do wop Do Wah
Do wop Do wah
Do wop Do wah
Do wop Do wah
Do wop Do wah
