A smile reflects the question
Doesn't reflect the view
Marching to a dead drum
Standing in a queue

I take all the blame
Wasting precious time
Far too long we go
When our dreams are intertwined

Far too long we go
Nothing in particular wrong
Far too long we go
To turn around, blame it on a single thing

Seemed right, seemed right, seemed right
Seemed so, so right
Seemed right, seemed right, seemed right
Seemed so, so right

I just need a little more time, little more time
Little more time, and I don't

I wish there's a village
We can blame it on the town
Rocking out the precipice
I don't wanna look down

I take all the blame
Wasting precious time
Far too long we go
When our dreams are intertwined

Far too long we go
Nothing in particular wrong
Far too long we go
To turn around, blame it on a single thing

Seemed right, seemed right, seemed right
Seemed so, so right
Seemed right, seemed right, seemed right

Seemed so, so right

I just need a little more time, little more time
Little more time, and I don't

It seemed right, seemed right, seemed right
It seemed so, so right
It seemed right, seemed right, seemed right
It seemed so, so right

I just need a little more time, a little more time
A little more time, and I don't

It seemed right, seemed right, seemed right
It seemed so, so right
It seemed right, seemed right, seemed right
It seemed so, so right

I just need a little more time, a little more time
A little more time, and I don't
