Well it's a simple state of mind, leave your troubles all behind, and just get into the zone,
And Get Your Country On,
Turn up some Cash, some Fowler, or Jones, maybe Van Halen, the Crue or Stones, Just make sure you crank the song, and Get Your Country On,
And it might be a honky tonk, or backyard B-B-Q,
Or you know that any dirt road will do,

Get your boots stompin, your fists pumpin, when the music is thumpin well you know it sounds right, Do some hell raising, a little whiskey chasing, well
there's no speed limit and there's no stop signs, Do some love making, a little ass shaking, well you know somebodies getting lucky tonight,
And if you feel what I'm saying, go ahead and sing along, and Get you Country On.
Yeah, it can't be wrong, to Get Your Country On,

Well you work all week to survive, now it's time to feel alive, your right where you belong, So Get Your Country On,
And your friends are all around, the cold beer is going down, if it feels this good it can't be wrong, To Get Your Country On,

And it might be the only dam fun that you have all week, so do it up right, let's start a stampede,

Get your boots stompin, your fists pumpin, when the
music is thumpin well you know it sounds right,
Do some hell raising, a little whiskey chasing, well
there's no speed limit and there's no stop signs,
Do some love making, a little ass shaking, well you
know somebodies getting lucky tonight,
And if you feel what I'm saying, go ahead and sing
along, and Get you Country On.
Yeah, it can't be wrong, to Get Your Country On,

It don't matter where you are, from Tennessee to the Lone Star, from the Backwoods to Babylon, Get Your Country On,

Get your boots stompin, your fists pumpin, when the
music is thumpin well you know it sounds right,
Do some hell raising, a little whiskey chasing, well
there's no speed limit and there's no stop signs,
Do some love making, a little ass shaking, well you
know somebodies getting lucky tonight,
And if you feel what I'm saying, go ahead and sing
along, and Get you Country On.
Yeah, it can't be wrong, to Get Your Country On,
Get Your Country On!
