Verse

I feel your footsteps moving on the second floor
I feel your body and I know you know I want to feel some more
I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I think youÃ¢â€Œ™ re lonely too I know you know I see it in your eyes
I break all over you like waves break on the shore
I see you moving through your window and I want to feel some more
I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I live a lonely life, I live a lonely life

Chorus

They say get over you, and I tried

But these days baby I see in black and white

Verse

I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I built my body out of locks and locked my ego deep inside
I built a house and built it big enough for two I got these thoughts inside my head I think theyÃ¢â€Œ™ re sick enough for you
I break all over you like waves break on the shore
I see you moving through your window and I want to
feel some more
I fit the record for the loneliest of guys
I live a lonely life, I live a lonely life

Chorus x 2
