I see her walkin' down the street
She's catchin' everybody's eye
She's wearin' tight jeans
And she's lookin' like she's feelin' real fine
She's in the latest style from the cut of her hair
She's got that sassy look in her eye
I'd like to meet her but I'm feelin' just a little bit shy

It seems she's wantin' to know my name
By the way she keeps staroin' at me
But when I walk up to see
She gives me the freeze

She's just a big tease
She's the one who brings the guys to their knees
She'll let them think they'll get whatever they please
There ain't no doubt about it, she's a teaser

I see her shoppin' at the local boutique
She's walkin' every single aisle
She's got to stay ahead if she's gonna try to be in style

She's got her own way of playin' the game now
She's the one who's makin' the rules
She's her own referee, take it from me

She's just a big tease
She's the one who brings the guys to their knees
She'll let them think they'll get whatever they please
She loves to see them crawl, cause she's a teaser

She's just a big tease
She'll lead them to believe that she's a real breeze
And then she'll leave them standing in a deep freeze
There ain't no doubt about it, she's a teaser

She's got a thing about colour and fashion
She can wear anything
She's just the right size
And she's saving her prize for me

I get the feelin' that she's lookin' me over
I wonder should I give her a try
But when I walk up to see
She gives the freeze

She's just a big tease
She's the one who brings the guys to their knees
She'll let them think they'll get whatever they please
She loves to see them crawl, cause she's a teaser

She's just a big tease
She'll lead them to believe that she's a real breeze
And then she'll leave them standing in a deep freeze
There ain't no doubt about it, she's a teaser

She's just a big tease
She's the one who brings the guys to their knees
She'll let them think they'll get whatever they please
She loves to see them crawl, cause she's a teaser
