I think that I can finally see
A change in my reality
In a new and different way
The way that I can tell that I'm right
Is everything looks fresh and bright
In a new and different way
Well I feel that from this special place
You see another kind of face
On those that didn't show
Then suddenly you find You're not coming from your mind
anymore

That's when you let your heart come through
The feeling that you find is you
In a new and different way
The place that you will learn to know
Is a place that in your life
you'll show
In a new and different way
Well I found that music is my play
And I'm living my life from day to day
With those I really love
And in return for what I give The love I get will surely live forever
Ever and ever.

Then suddenly you find
You're not coming from your mind
anymore
That's when you let your heart
Come through
The feeling that you find is you
In a new and different way

you'll show
In a new and different way
Well I found that music is my play
day to day
With those I really love
forever
Ever and ever.
