Lyin' on a hillside
All alone in the twilight
Watchin' the stars pop out
Feelin kinda small right now
Contemplatin' all that space
All the planets in their place
Wonderin' where I fit in
As the world slowly spins around me
Around me, the universe surrounds me
I thirst and I hunger
I search and I wonder

Chorus:
Is there anybody out there
Somebody out there
That one body out there
I believe there's gotta be
A love for me somewhere
Who's prayin' the same prayer
Is there anybody out there
Lookin' for me

4 billion people
A haystack and a needle
If only I could catch a ride
On the passin' side of life
With a different point of view
Maybe then I'd find you
But I'm stuck here on the ground
Askin' the dark out loud
Is he close?
Is he near me?
Can anybody hear me?

Chorus:
Is there anybody out there
Somebody out there
That one body out there
I believe there's gotta be
A love for me somewhere
Who's prayin' the same prayer
Is there anybody out there

Lookin' for me

Oh, I believe
There's gotta be
A love for me somewhere
Who's prayin the same prayer
Is there anybody out there
Lookin' for me

Is anybody out there?
