unleash the dogs of war
love tonight
before they've all (something)
???????

and when they die
a clear (something) of (something) arrives and blaze out everything(not right)

fuck (something)
and fuck you too

(no clue)

my god they finally found a way to terrorize the (something)
we do it better in the night
than/can you

we take it easy
we take it twice
we tremble through the night
with you

clean you up
with the blood that i spill
and take you down through the night
and i clean you up
with the blood that i spill

and as they die
a (something) of (something) arrives and blaze out everything we can feel it in the night can't you

we take it easy
we take it twice
with you

i clean you up
with the blood that i spill
and take you down through the night
and i clean you up
with the blood that i spill
and take you down through the night
