This way he tells you how he feels
Doesn't matter at all
It's something from a low sad kid hands
That's been ridden in his only book
That stands by itself

Hey tell me
Are you safe where you are?
Hey tell me
Is your life what you need?

Here it's fine
It's one day at a time
But sometimes it's hard to think that
You are laughing with another one but me
It's a fact that we maybe never
Ever find it again

Hey tell me
Are you safe where you are?
Hey tell me
Is your life what you need?

Hey tell me
Are you safe where you are?
Hey tell me
Is your life what you need?
