I was walkin' down the street

Mindin' my own affair

When two police grabbed me

Unaware

They says, 'Your name, Henry?'

I says, 'Why sho'

He says, 'You the boy I been lookin' for'

I was framed

Framed, I was blamed

Fra-a-amed

Well, I never knew nothin'

But I always get framed

Oh, framed

(short guitar riff)

Spoken:

They took him in the line up

And let those bright lights shine

There was ten poor souls

Like me in that line

I knew I was a victim

Of someone's evil plan

When a stool-pigeon walked in

And says;

(sings) 'That's your man!'

I was framed
Framed, I was blamed
Oh, framed, framed, framed
Well, I never knew nothin'
But I always get framed

(short guitar riff)

Spoken:

Well, the prosecuting attorney
Stared-a prosecutin' me
Man, that cat didn't give me the one
But the, third degree
He says, 'Where were you
On the night, July 19, 1953?'
'Man, I was just home, just-a
Tweedle-e-dee'.

(sings)
I was framed
Oh, framed, I was blamed
Oh, framed, framed, framed
Well, I never knew nothin'
But I always get framed
Oh, framed

Oh, framed.
