I'm driving tonight in Aurora
Down a highway where nobody knows
I'm hoping that no one will find me
I am dressed in the finest of clothes

And the ocean keeps calling
Calling me

Sweet wheels take me where I wanna go
Where the warm winds blow
Sweet wheels take me where I wanna go
Love to hear her engine roll
Listen to the radio
Sweet wheels

I came here looking for something
And I'll leave here the same I suppose
I'm riding with angels and devils
And they all try to make me their own

And the ocean keeps calling
Calling me

Sweet wheels take me where I wanna go
Where the warm winds blow
Sweet wheels take me where I wanna go
Love to hear her engine roll
Listen to the radio
Sweet wheels

And the ocean keeps calling
Calling me

Sweet wheels take me where I wanna go
Where the warm winds blow
Sweet wheels take me where I wanna go
Love to hear rock n' roll playing on the radio
Sweet wheels
